

1BM Essential Agreement

In our class we will be a risk-taker by having a go with everything we do, we encourage curiosity and will be a thinker and Inquirer who is open-minded. We will show confidence and integrity.

We will be a communicator that can work together displaying cooperation, tolerance and respect. 1BM are caring people who understand empathy.

In our class we are balanced and work with enthusiasm and curiosity. We are principled and can show our appreciation to our classmates and other people.

We are reflective learners that are knowledgeable when we demonstrate commitment and independence.

1BM will work towards showing all of the PYP attitudes and the Learner Profile attributes.

NEGATIVE CONSEQUENCES

If we do not follow the Essential Agreement there will be consequences for our actions:

- You will be given a warning and need to move your peg down on the 'Learning Choices' chart.
- May be asked to remove yourself to Miss Fardell's room (next door) to think about choices made.
  - If needed, stay in for part of recess/lunch.
- If you continue to make poor choices parents will be contacted.

POSITIVE CONSEQUENCES

If we follow the Essential Agreement there will be consequences for our actions:

- You will be asked to move your peg up on the behaviour chart.
- Celebrate our success as a class when we follow the Essential Agreement, by recognition and games.
