

4AA's Essential Agreement

I will be caring by looking after my classmates, our school environment and other people's things. I will also be caring by showing respect by being polite, nice and kind to people.

I will show cooperation by being respectful, taking turns, sharing my ideas and being a good communicator when working in a group or team.

I will show creativity by thinking independently, using my imagination and thinking of new ideas. I will express myself by showing creativity.

I will show integrity by following the rules, being fair, telling the truth and being honest to everyone around me.

I will show commitment by putting in my best effort, staying on task, finishing my work and persevering when with my learning goals and tasks.

I will show confidence by being a risk-taker who believes in my own abilities and myself.

I will show independence by being a thinker who makes good choices and works independently.

I will show enthusiasm by being positive, being proud of my achievements and having a willingness to do or try something.

I will show curiosity by being an inquirer who wants to learn, find something out and ask lots of questions.

I will show appreciation by being thankful and showing good manners.

I will show tolerance by listening to other people's ideas and accepting the differences in others.

I will show respect by being a good listener who is supportive, polite and caring. It is important to treat other people, as you want to be treated. I will also show respect by being quiet when other people are working.
