

PREP PT

ESSENTIAL AGREEMENT

In Prep PT our essential agreement reflects the PYP Attitudes. Everyone is safe and happy in our classroom when:

We show respect by listening.

We treat others nicely.

We take care of our items in our classroom.

We put up our hand.

We use our manners.

We show tolerance by helping others.

We listening to all others.

We wait patiently.

We show cooperation by playing nicely and safely.

We always share.

We help others.

Listen and speak politely.

We show confidence by trying our best at everything.

We have a go.

We try to be happy and smile.

We show commitment by not giving up.

We finish what we start.

We show independence by trying to do things for ourselves.

We do our best completing our morning and afternoon routines.

We show appreciation by saying please and thank you.

We take care of our classroom and our items.

We show creativity by learning new things.

We ask questions.

We show curiosity by wanting to find out more.

We ask questions and look for answers.

We show enthusiasm by saying positive things.

We enjoy learning.

We show caring by thinking about and helping others.

We look after our belongings.

We play and learn safely.

We show integrity by doing the right thing.

We are always responsible.

CONSEQUENCES:

1. Verbal warning and discuss behaviour (behaviour and learning ladder is used).
2. Second warning, discuss behaviour and go back to essential agreement.
3. Apologise to person or class.
4. Time out within the classroom, for part of recess or lunch.
5. If behaviour continues meeting with parents and child.