

Our Essential Agreement, in 1JR we are:

OPEN MINDED – We listen to what other people have to say and respect their ideas.

PRINCIPLED – We tell the truth, we are honest and we are fair. We share and play well with others. We do our work independently and are responsible.

THINKERS - We think carefully to make good choices and decisions. We think about our learning and our actions.

INQUIRERS – We are curious, and we enjoy learning new things. We ask good questions, and we are problem solvers.

KNOWLEDABLE – We know about many things and we remember what we learn. We can share our knowledge with others.

RISK-TAKERS – We have the confidence to try new things. We know that mistakes are okay, and that practice makes progress.

COMMUNICATORS – We can share our ideas with others, and we can listen to others. We use our voices appropriately in the classroom. We use kind words when speaking to others.

REFLECTIVE – We think about our learning and work. We know when we have done our best and when we could have done better.

CARING – We think and care about the needs and feelings of others. We help others and we care about the planet and look after the environment.

BALANCED – We take care of our body and our mind. We stay healthy by eating good food, exercising and having fun. We work hard and then we can play.

Consequences
