

Essential Agreement - 4FL 2019

We will show respect by speaking politely to others, have tolerance by not judging anyone, have empathy for others and genuinely have appreciation and acceptance of the differences in each other.

We will be kind, caring, show integrity by being honest at all times even if we have made a mistake, say sorry when we need to and support and help our peers at all times.

We will make a commitment to our peers to actively listen to them, encourage them to do their best, have a go with our learning and show co-operation with each other especially during group work while being a communicator and open minded to our peer's thoughts and ideas.

We will strive to do our learning to the best of our ability, be a risk taker as we learn new things while developing independence and enthusiasm towards our learning.

We will show confidence in trying to understand new things, show curiosity and creativity in all areas of our learning both in and out of the classroom.

We will be principled and respectful in terms of our computer agreement by using our Mac book in a balanced, knowledgeable way, using it appropriately and only when asked, staying on safe sites and ensuring we are on task at all times.

We will be positive in our learning, have faith in ourselves and our peers, be an inquirer and thinker as we learn new things both in and out of the classroom and work quietly while others are learning as well as being a reflective learner.

We will be thoughtful, considerate and kind by making good choices, being thankful for what we have, show good manners and remember to treat people as we wish to be treated.

Consequences:

- First warning given
- Second warning given
- Discussion with Mrs. Lever
- Removed from the activity and time to reflect
- Time spent in at lunchtime to complete work/write out the agreement
- Discussion with team leader and/or Mrs. O'Connor